House Over.

Last Saturday one J. M. King, of Forest City, was taken before Esquire W. B. Sloan, on the charge of assault with intent to kill one W. B. Sloan, of that place. An examination was had, which resulted in binding over the said King in the sum of $500 for his appearance before our Circuit Court, at the next term thereof.

Musical Entertainment.

We are glad to announce that a number of the finest among our amateur musicians have been practicing together for some weeks past with a view of giving a musical entertainment to our citizens. The affair will come off at the Methodist Church next Monday evening, and will proceed, we are pleased to add, will come to the benefit of the Church. The programme is varied and extensive, and embraces some of the choicest musical gems.

Prof. Wilson, of this place, has kindly consented to take the management on this occasion, and from his well known musical reputation, it is needless for us to say that it will be properly conducted. Prof. James, of St. Joseph, has also consented to take a part, much to the gratification of his many friends here.

The concert will be varied by two recitations from the poets, by Dr. Howard, which will alone be worth the price of admission. We advise those who can appreciate a musical and literary treat to buy tickets, which may be obtained at the principal business houses, and at this office, for 25 cents.

New-comers into Holt will find everything they want to set up housekeeping with again at SMITH'S.

WHIFFS AND WHIMS.

—A new barber has come to town—

—Hamas says Jas. H. Nien will soon open a Lumber Yard here. Good for Jemas.

—Wm. Bunker intends bringing on a stock of furniture to put in his new business house, which he is having finished up in good style.

—We note the following new improvements: J. T. Hoblitzell, new barn building near his fine residence, in the Western Addition.

—H. G. Schulte has just completed a new dwelling south of Mr. Lahmer's.

—Alexander Reel is building a new dwelling west of the residence of Jas. H. Nien.

—James Vaughn is purposing to build another dwelling on his lots, in the Western Addition. He has already built two dwellings. This is sensible, for dwellings are in great demand.

—Mr. Bennett is finishing up his business house west of the public square.

—Mackey & Cottrell are having their store house repainted and refitted.

—Castle is remodeling the inside of his boot and shoe shop.

—There were seventy-five teams in town, at one time, on Monday, and near that many on Saturday, with a good number every day this week.

—Business has increased fifty per cent. since the new year came in. At the present time, Oregon does more business than at any other period in ten years. Who doubts this assertion?

—We learn that quite a severe accident befel our bus-man, Sol. Foster, last Sabbath. He was thrown from a buggy, dislocating his ankle in the fall. He is fast recovering.

—We are informed that there was what might be called a little row, at the billiard saloon, last Friday night. D—d tie—a head met with the butt end of a cane—stomped down stairs—doors locked, &c.—all quiet. But as this is the first business transaction of the kind for a great while, we will say nothing about it, for no other reason than that of keeping this branch of the peace from the city official's ears.

—We are under tremendous obligations to our friend Kyger, for—(we don't drink) but a—a—of fine $8—key.

—Messrs. Foster, of the City Hotel, are having their bus repainted, and will have it on the road soon.

—The house of our city Mayor, on last Tuesday night, was about taking fire from a box of ashes setting near it, when discovered by a passer by.

—Only a few days ago a similar case happened at the house of our city Fire Warden. City authorities protect us.

New Arrivals.

Among the latest arrivals to our town, we note that of Messrs. KELLY and HOOGL, from Clinton, Illinois. We understand that these gentlemen are number one lawyers.

They called on us yesterday, and expressed themselves as very favorably impressed with the manifest enterprise and energy of our citizens, and also with the general appearance of our town and county. They also informed us that they intend permanently locating here, and entering upon the practice of their profession.

We clip the following from the Clinton Public:

"Jacob Hogle and Wm. R. Kelley left for their new home—Oregon, Holt county, Mo., Monday morning. The good wishes of their many warm friends accompany them. The Oregonians will find these young gentlemen well-read lawyers, active, enterprising and honorable men, and valuable citizens."

We add that our townsmen, Mr. JEWELL, hail from the same place that the above gentlemen came from, and we clip again from the Clinton Public, as follows:

"We are indebted to our former fellow-townsmen, S. Philo Jewell, for a pamphlet giving much valuable information in regard to Holt county. It contains strong inducements to persons in search of a location. According to this pamphlet, the people of that section are anxious to have persons locate in their midst; but they want active, working men, either in the professions, or mechanical trades, or farmers. No drones or idlers are wanted there."

That's so! No drones wanted. Judging from the way this county used to advance before the war, there were a great many of the "varmints" here, but now the watchwords are, advance, activity, progress, onward, enterprising, industry, &c.

Organization of I. O. O. F. Encampment at Oregon.

Tuesday, March 4th, was a gala day at Oregon, among the I. O. O. F. fraternity, not only on account of its being the inaugural day of the President, but also on account of the bright lights of the fraternity from St. Joseph visited this place for the purpose of instituting an Encampment of the Order. The delegation consisted of R. J. S. WISE, G. C. P.; ISAAC EDWARDS, Past C. P.; B. F. BUZZARD, Past C. P.; JOHN FISHMAN, Past C. P.; W. S. JOHNSTON, Past C. P.; and Patrick SAMUEL HESS, W. S. ELLIS and SAMUEL RICHARDSON. It is hardly necessary to add that the encampment was organized and duly instituted in the work. The Grand Officers installed into their respective offices, the following: WM. KAUCHER, C. P.; DANIEL KING, H. P.; J. H. C. CURTIS, S. W.; JOHN KYLE, J. W.; A. N. RULEY, Scribe.
